Group chief executive officer Ahmad Najib Nazlan (pic) said the solution, which aimed to supplement one's retirement planning, comprised of two new global syariah-compliant funds – Maybank Global Wealth Moderate-I Fund and Maybank Global Wealth Growth-I Fund.

“The solution aims to achieve capital growth over the medium to long-term with a target return of 6% to 8% per annum and incorporates a capital preservation strategy.”

He said the solution is targeted to the mass market and a supplement to other investments that one had.
